

2015 NWD Buddhist Convention
Junior and Senior YBA Code of Ethics

(Required for ALL YBA registrants)

Violation of any of the following provisions will be investigated and individuals may be requested to leave the site of the convention with forfeiture of expenses otherwise provided by the Seattle Betsuin Young Buddhist Association. If deemed necessary by the chaperones, parents will be responsible for immediately coming to the convention site to take care of their son/daughter.

1. Illegal drugs and alcohol of any kind are prohibited.
2. Everyone must respect the rights and property of other participants and the hotel.
3. Each participant must be within the confines of the activities specified at agreed times and obey the 1:30 am evening curfew.
4. Each participant is responsible for their behavior and actions to their peers, chaperones, and advisors.
5. Each participant is responsible in letting their chaperones/advisors know as to his/her whereabouts at all times.

Waiver Form

As a YBA participant, I, _____, have read and will abide by the responsibilities and code of ethics provided. I agree not to hold the Seattle Betsuin Young Buddhist Association or the Seattle Betsuin Buddhist Temple responsible in any way should injury, loss of property or any other mishap occur. I acknowledge that I will be held responsible for my own actions and I will agree to respect the property of others as well as that of the facility.
