

“Learning from Kenchashiki” (Tea Offering Ceremony)

by Rimban Katsuya Kusunoki

The essence of Jōdō Shinshū (Shin Buddhism)'s ritual and ceremony originates from “Five Right Practices (goshōgyō)” taught by Master Shan-Tao (613-681). These are 1. Sutra Chanting, 2. Visualization, 3. Worshiping, 4. Saying the name of the Buddha, (Namoamidabutsu), and 5. Praising & Offering.

These are the right practices for Pure Land followers to walk the path without losing directions. Among these, 4. Saying the name of the Buddha is the act of true settlement, and the others are auxiliary acts.

This time, I would like to focus on “offering”. “Offering” is one of our acts/practices to express our appreciation to the Buddha. From olden times, incense, flowers, and candlelight have been offered to the Buddha. In the Larger Sutra, there is a passage that tells us how to make offerings to the Buddha. It says, “light lamps, scatter flowers, and burn incense.” Following the Larger Sutra, we offer flower arrangements, burn incense, and light candles on the maejoku table regularly. In addition, we also offer fruit and sweets for special occasions. At our mother temple, Hongwanji, ten different kinds of foods are offered for Hoonko service, (our founder Shinran Shonin's annual memorial observance), in January. Also, the Grand Master of Yabunouchi School of Tea visits our mother temple, Hongwanji, and Tsukiji Hongwanji for Gōtan'e, (Our founder Shinran Shonin's birthday), in May to conduct “Kenchashiki,” (Tea Offering Ceremony). It is the highest form of offering tea to the Buddha and sacred images. The aim is not only to offer tea to the Buddha but also to show the Grand Master's gratitude in his action of making and offering tea to the Buddha.

In a record, it is said that the 13th Monshu of Hongwanji, Ryonyo Shonin (1612-1662), welcomed the second Grand Master of Yabunouchi School of Tea, Shinnō Yabunouchi, in 1640 and he conducted Kenchashiki to serve green tea to Ryonyo Shonin in 1644. Also, the 18th Monshu of Hongwanji, Monnyo Shonin (1744-1799), deepened the relationship with Yabunouchi school. Since then, it has become customary to have Kenchashiki at Hongwanji for major services such as Gōtan'e. Because the Yabunouchi School of Tea has a close relationship with Hongwanji, they recognize their tea as “Tea for Temple” and “Tea for Buddha Dharma”. Kenchashiki at Hongwanji is not for pleasure and social events. Rather, it is a ritual to settle people's minds in preparation to face the Buddha and listen to the Buddha Dharma. For this reason, the Buddha and Buddha Dharma is the main object at the Kenchashiki.

Kenchashiki is conducted with respect and gratitude to the Buddha and Buddha Dharma by the Grand Master. How do they set up all the equipment? How do they prepare themselves for this ceremony? What is the meaning of each action? What thought do they put into each action? Through Kenchashiki, we can learn how we should offer flowers, candlelight, and incense; how we should serve for the Buddha, and how we should listen to Buddha Dharma. We can discover something new and learn how we can improve ourselves as Jōdō Shinshū followers.

Seattle Betsuin was established in 1901 and celebrates its 125th anniversary in 2026. Seattle Betsuin has a Yabunouchi Tea group which is the only group outside of Japan. In commemoration of the 125th anniversary, I am wondering if we can invite the Grand Master of Yabunouchi school to have Kenchashiki at the Seattle Betsuin's Hondo which is totally refurbished. It must be a precious opportunity for us and future Sangha to perpetually maintain Seattle Betsuin Buddhist Temple as cherishing Buddha, Dharma and Sangha. Gassho,

New Year's Message

Monshu Kojun Ohtani

As we welcome the new year, I wish to extend to you my greetings.

First of all, in recent years, natural disasters such as typhoons, heavy rains, earthquakes and large-scale forest fires have occurred frequently in Japan and other parts of the world, causing great damage. I would like to express my sincere condolences to those who lost loved ones and convey my sincere sympathy to everyone who was affected by these disasters. I sincerely hope that everyone will be able to return to a sense of peace and normalcy as soon as possible.

Last year was a milestone year marking 80 years since the end of World War II. In July, I had the precious opportunity to conduct memorial services in Okinawa, Hiroshima, and Nagasaki, each location which experienced indescribable destruction in this war. I was also given the precious opportunity to listen to the stories of those who experienced the war. Listening to those stories, it made me reflect on the message delivered in 1995 by then Sokunyo Monshu at the "Memorial Service for All the Victims of the 50th Anniversary of the End of the War," at which time he expressed his regret that our organization went against the teachings of our founder and actively cooperated in the war in the name of Buddhism. I was reminded that I must take to heart the words of Sokunyo Monshu and move forward carrying out my duties with a renewed determination.

The post war journey of our organization began with the aim of realizing a peaceful society where all people can live happily, while not forgetting how we actively cooperated and participated in the war. We must remain mindful of this fact and never repeat the same mistake. Even today, wars and conflicts continue around the world, and many precious lives are threatened. In such a situation, let us always keep in mind the wish of our founder, Shinran Shonin, and move forward each day guided by his words, "Let there be peace in the world, and may the Buddha Dharma spread".

January 2026 Chair's Letter

By Tyler Moriguchi

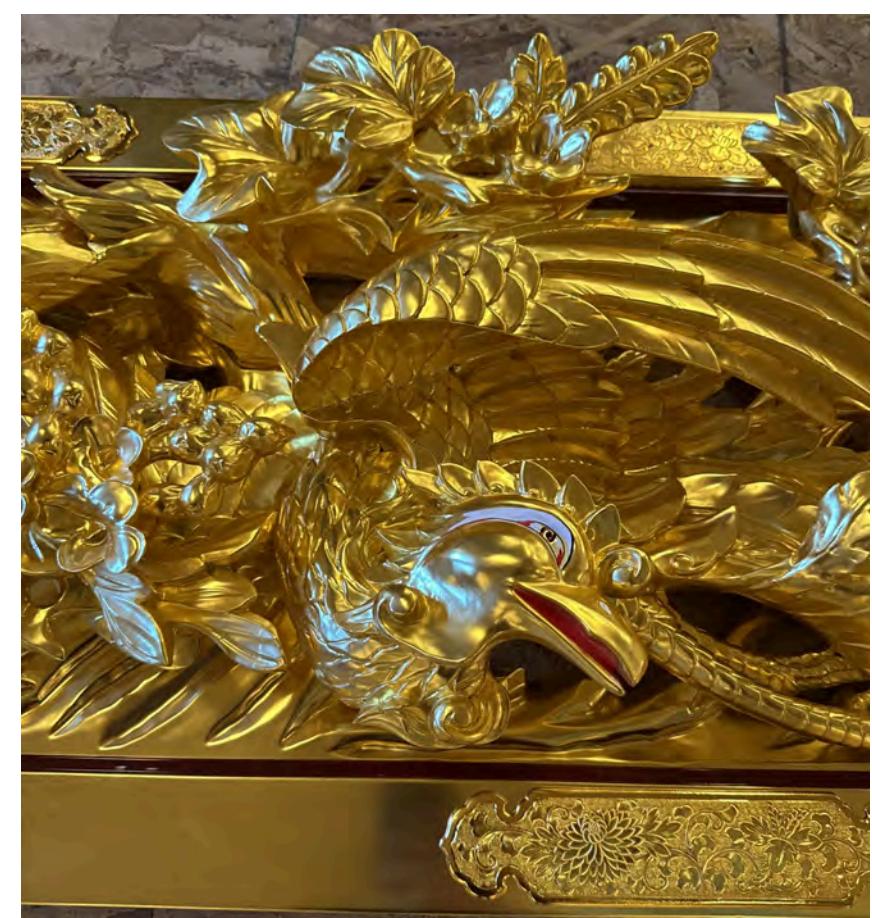

Happy New Years! As we enter into our 3rd year of rebuilding from the temple fire,

I would like to start by thanking the Sangha for their continued support of the temple during our rebuilding effort. Thank you for your patience and understanding as we have navigated the challenges of rebuilding.

When we talk about rebuilding the temple, it is easy to think of the symbolism of the Phoenix- the mythical bird that rises from the ashes of its immolation. This Phoenix is based on the Egyptian/Greek mythology. The Japanese Phoenix, Hōō (鳳凰), is slightly different. Based on the Chinese Fenghuang, the Hōō is said to appear only in times of peace and prosperity and virtuous rulers. The Hōō is also associated with Amida Buddha and is said to guide followers to the Pure Land at the moment of their passing. There is a carving of the Hōō in the ranma (欄間) that runs above the Onaijin. It is my hope that the Hōō and our rebuilt temple will herald a new time of peace and prosperity for the Sangha and usher in a renewal of Jōdo Shinshū in the Pacific Northwest.

I hope you will join us for our Hōonkō seminar and service, observing the passing of Shinran Shonin. Wishing you a happy year of the horse,
Tyler Moriguchi, Chair
Seattle Betsuin Buddhist Temple

Musical Notes

Thank you to the musicians who presented “The Bodhi Tree” for Bodhi Day Service on December 7 with me: Ann, Aki, Esther, Paul and lead vocalists Naho and Zoe.

With services held in the Densho building, we will do our best to provide optimal gatha selections, particularly for online viewers.

In the meantime, Donna Sasaki and I are working with the BCA NCM/NWD convention planning committee for music elements for the weekend of February 13-15, 2026. Rev. Harada requested Techno Hoyo be included, so Rev. Gyosen Asakura will present on Friday evening, February 13. To view videos from the Techno Hoyo BCA tour in 2024, you may check out this New York Buddhist Church YouTube channel playlist: <https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PL9P7K3huZH8Vpj7v1TdPjPWNiZEjpKNMh>

Donna Sasaki assisted by Lisa Horikawa Orpilla will also present a music workshop. We are excited to have the support of these talented creative artists. Please register for convention if you have not done so already!

We are still finalizing service music plans for the convention. If you are interested in participating there or when we are back to the larger service space, please contact me through the temple office. We also welcome any general suggestions to enhance service music as well as music offerings for the Seattle Betsuin 125th anniversary celebration year.

Ukulele practice will be at 9:15 am on Sundays January 4th and 18th – contact Ann Oxrieder to join. Zoom “Singing, Strumming, and Sharing” will be on Monday, January 12 at 7 pm instead of the first Monday of the month. Please contact the temple office if you wish to be added to the group for the Zoom link.

Happy New Year!

During the month of December, we celebrated Bodhi Day with a much-anticipated potluck. Thank you to everyone who shared your delicious dishes, with a special thank you to the Toyoshima family for providing the beautiful cakes for the sangha. Although Santa arrived a week late, when he came, he was able to admire our Dharma School students' creative gingerbread houses. Thank you to June from Tacoma Buddhist Temple for her continued support in helping make this festive activity possible.

Dharma School is currently on break until January 4, but we encourage students and families to join the sangha for regular family services, as well as the New Year's Eve and New Year's Day services. When Dharma School resumes, please note that due to HVAC and electrical work in the temple gym, Hondo, kitchen, and dining room, the primary class will meet in the Densho small room, and the middle/high school class will gather in the Wisteria meeting room after family service.

If you have not already, please remember to register for the 78th Northwest District Convention, taking place February 13–15 at the Hyatt Regency Lake Washington. Your support of Dharma School fundraisers helps us subsidize registration fees for our students, so thank you for making this possible!

Seattle Betsuin Buddhist Women's Association SBBWA's Mission is to cultivate religious awareness as Jodo Shinshu Buddhist women and promote fellowship among its members; to serve and support the Seattle Betsuin, and contribute services to the welfare of the community.

This year's Bodhi Day service was followed by a potluck luncheon that included a very special gift donated by the family of Mrs. Michiko Toyoshima. The three tiered cake was intricately decorated and truly captured the essence of the occasion. A sincere thank you to the Toyoshima family for this much appreciated (and photographed) cake in memory of Michiko.

Michiko was a long-time member of White River Buddhist Temple and then the Seattle Betsuin from around 2008. I think many remember her as an avid knitter who generously donated her knitted caps which were shared with local organizations. Our Social Services Committee organized our annual Kimochi gift giving for our members that are not able to attend in-person service. Committee chairs, Sheri M and Susanne U selected a nice variety of items and enlisted members to help assemble gift bags. A nice handmade card from the Dharma School children was tucked inside each bag. The home visits and gifts were very much appreciated all the way around. This is a meaningful event that helps our members stay connected.

TROOP 252 UPDATE

Article by Felix K.

During the month of December the Scouts of Troop 252 did several things, including holding a Court of Honour, learning how to change a flat bicycle tire, and doing elections for leadership roles.

This month we had fewer meetings than usual, mainly because of the 2-week long break before the western new year. Consequently, the meetings we did have were much more productive than normal. On December 7th Scouts each brought a wheel and, instructed by Mr. Henley, deflated it and pulled out the inner tube to 'change' the tire. (no inner tubes were harmed during this exercise).

During elections, the role of Troop Historian was dusted off and finally taken after being vacant for 5+ years.

Happy holidays!

Committee seeks families of individuals housed in Nokotsudo

Last year, the Nokotsudo Committee was formed to explore converting the temple's Nokotsudo (Columbarium) from a temporary storage location of cremains to a permanent Nokotsudo. As part of the committee's work, we are attempting to locate family contacts for the approximately 300 individuals currently housed in the Nokotsudo. If you have a family member in the Nokotsudo, please contact the temple office at office@seattlebetsuin.org.

Also, if you would be interested in a niche in the permanent Nokotsudo, please contact the temple office.
